CHAPTER I: RICK RAMSEY, RIGHT HAND MAN

“This game is awesome. You can actually crack a bottle on a guy’s head and the shards embed in his skull.” “Lemme see!” Rick dropped into the empty chair. Jeff pressed a series of buttons, and a hulking character on the screen picked up a bottle that read XXX and cracked it over the skull of a skinny little guy drinking at the bar.

CHAPTER II: SHE DOESN’T USE THAT NAME ANYMORE

Or lately, to stare at, if there was a girl he deemed pretty. This morning, it was a girl. “Check out the hottie!” Jeff said in greeting. He tossed his head vaguely across the schoolyard.

“Which one?” Rick hated when Jeff called girls hotties. He made it sound like they were sexy pancakes.

“You know,” said Jeff, “I saw a lady walking around on the beach without her clothes this summer.” “You told me. You sure she wasn’t just wearing a bathing suit the color of her skin?” “No, dude, I told you! She was super naked. And hot too. Everyone was staring. Men, women, kids. Even the fish.”

r. “You look good.” Rick meant it. Not the way Jeff would, but more like she looked happy. Last year, her hair had been in her face and her eyes were almost always focused on the ground. Now her reddish-brown hair was brushed back and her eyes were looking right at Rick. “Thanks.” Rick’s brain felt like a vacuum, and the next words that came to his mind popped right out of his mouth. “So you’re ...” “I’m a girl. A transgender girl. I wanted to come to school as myself last year, but my mom said I should wait for a fresh start in middle school.” “That makes sense, I guess.” Melissa shrugged. “It would have been nice to stop hiding sooner.” “That makes sense too.” Rick gave a small, awkward smile. He would have thought it would be weird to meet a transgender girl, but it wasn’t, really. At least, not if the girl was Melissa. He continued, “So I guess I know what you’re excited about this year.

*When the bell rang, the room devolved into a whirl of chaos. Rick found himself right behind Melissa in the rush to the door, where the kid who had been next to Melissa in the yard waited, bouncing in place. From the front, her T-shirt read, WARNING: RUNS WITH SCISSORS.

“Remember that girl in the blue skirt from this morning?” “You mean the hot one?” “Yeah, well, she sits in front of me in homeroom, and I found something out ...” “How was she close up?”

CHAPTER IV: PLATO WAS GAY, EVEN DURING SCIENCE CLASS

“I know just the place!” said the girl with the braid. “Has anyone heard of the Rainbow Spectrum? It’s an after-school club for LGBTQIAP+ rights. I know about it because my sister helped start it a couple of years ago, when she was in eighth grade.”

Rick was still thinking about the Rainbow Spectrum that evening. Sometimes Rick wondered whether he was gay because he had never had a crush on a girl. But he had never had a crush on a boy either, so how could he be gay?

CHAPTER V: THE KETCHUP KERFUFFLE

 There were rainbows at the top and bottom of the poster, and big, bold letters that read All Are Welcome. Jeff hit Rick on the shoulder to get his attention. “Whoa, Rick. Check this out. A buncha gay kids are meeting up! Gross!”

 “And then that lesbo tried to tell me that I was harassing her!” “Whoa, dude!” said maybe-Matt. “What did you call her?” “And before you answer that,” said maybe-Mark, “you oughta know my aunt’s a lesbian.” “And she could kick your butt!” added maybe-Matt. “She does aikido. She’s scary!” “So now you guys are gonna go all gay on me too?”

I can already tell this is going to be an exciting year. Before we do anything else, let's do a go-round, where we all introduce ourselves. In addition to sharing your name, grade, and preferred pronouns,

Zoe was the girl with the patched-up jean jacket. "Hi, I'm Zoe, I'm in eighth grade, and I'm bisexual. My preferred pronouns are she and her. And I'm here because I think LGBTQIAP+ rights are really important."

"Yeah, so I'm Green, and I'm in sixth grade and enby." Green saw some puzzled looks from around the room and clarified, "Enby from NB, or nonbinary."

 Kelly went next. "Hi. I'm Kelly Arden. I'm straight, but I'm a proud ally." "Not to be harsh," said Zoe, "but ally isn't really an identity to be proud of. And you're new, but we talked about this last year, and we don't use that word as a noun here anymore. Allying is something you do, not someone you are." "Then what's the A for in LGBTQIAP+?" asked Kelly. "Asexual," said Zoe. A few kids nodded, but others looked confused. "Asexuality is when you don't have any interest in, like, ever doing the deed with anyone."

CHAPTER X: SECRETS SHARED

"Oh, phew." Rick sat back down. He had never seen an adult quite so nervous to say something before, especially not to a kid. He put his hand on Grandpa Ray's knee and patted it a few times. Grandpa Ray put his hand on top of Rick's and rested it there. Rick could feel Grandpa Ray's bony knee through his pants.
